In the forest. The collective exhibition Dins del bosc brings together six photographic approaches to the theme of the forest. el quadern robot gallery has selected works by six photographers born between 1969 and 1975 and their proposals are very different. Israel Ariño enters the dark forest in his series Obirar. Oriol Jolonch represents post-apocalyptic fictions that refer to a destructive present. Laia Moreto presents diptychs that reflect on the image and the point of view. Jordi Casañas looks at a detail and alludes to the myth of Icarus. Fiona Morrison adds unreality to the landscape through superpositions. And the discovery is the excellent naturalist landscapes by Bernat Gasull, son and grandson of well-known photographers. el quadern robot. Còrsega, 267. Until September 29 (August closed).
